Golf Cart Usage Policy

Members or Guest of the Hinton Golf Club must abide by the following policies when renting golf power carts.

- All golf power cart renters must abide by the rules of the day, in any form, whether verbally provided by the golf shop staff, posted in the golf carts, posted on the golf shop entrance, or communicated by the email newsletter.

Rules of Golf Power Carts:

- Users must abide by the directional signage posted on the golf course on each hole
- Users must abide by all areas marked by ropes, stakes, barricades, or signs to not leave the cart paths
- Users must not AT ANYTIME park the golf power cart within 10 meters of any green

Failure to follow the golf power cart rules will result in the following:

- 1st offence – verbal warning from management
- 2nd offence – written warning from management
- 3rd offence – 30 day removal of rental privileges of golf power cart rental and/or usage
- 4th offence – seasonal removal of rental privileges of golf power cart rental and/or usage
